WINDRUSH '75

Join us as we honour the 75th Windrush Day on June 22nd. Celebrating the Lancashire Windrush Generation's pivotal role in rebuilding modern England and inspiring future generations.

Join us for a two-day event featuring two insightful films focused around Windrush. We want to welcome as many people as possible so we are giving away FREE tickets to these screenings.

Thu 22nd June

- Creative Writing Workshop with acclaimed author Okey Nzelu in The Gallery - 3 to 4pm.
- Traditional Caribbean Food by Yardies - Served from 4pm.
- Film Screening: Babymother - 5.30pm

Sun 25th June

- Film Screening: Burning An Illusion - 2:50pm.
- Post-show Q&A with Prof. Alan Rice (Lancaster Black History Group co-chair), Clinton Smith (Preston Black History Group Chair), and Gisela Renolds (Executive Director of Global Link).
