

Lancaster Day

at Judges Lodgings Museum

Thursday 12 June 11am to 4pm

FREE ENTRY ALL DAY

Enjoy a free visit to Lancaster's oldest town house as the city celebrates Lancaster Day.

Explore the historic house, discover the beautiful garden, chat with our friendly room stewards and view the latest exhibition, Style and Sensibility - Regency Fashion 1800-1830s.

Delve into Lancaster's dark past with a look at the Red Judges of the Assizes who presided over the cases at Lancaster Castle and stayed at Judges Lodgings.

Find out about the personalities behind the cases, like 'Acid Drop' known for his harsh sentencing, and some of the shocking cases they presided over. Speaker Penny Blackburn reveals her original research into the historic visitor book at the Judges Lodgings and shares the lighter side of Judges' lives, from amateur athletics to family life.

Lecture is free and takes place at 1pm to 2pm.
